

IN-CONFIDENCE

Crown Response to the Abuse in Care Inquiry

Independent Candidate Review Panel – Redress Design & Advisory Groups

Name	Bio
Tu Chapman – Chair (Ngāti Kahungunu, Ngāti Awa, Ngāti Tūwharetoa and Taranaki) 	Tu Chapman is a member of the Royal Commission’s Survivor Advisory Group of Experts. She is a survivor of abuse in state care. She was made a ward of the state at a very young age and experienced many forms of abuse from sexual to physical. With this lived experience she is an advocate for change and a thought-leader on issues relating to mātauranga Māori and tikanga Māori practices. She is passionate about enacting and informing better processes that allow hāpori Māori to grow and thrive. She is an active member of the Takatāpui Community as a representative voice of Ira Tangata – Māori who are Intersex. Tu is also the co-chair of ITANZ (Intersex Aotearoa). Tu is a public servant who currently works at Te Puni Kōkiri.
Gary Williams MNZM (Ngāti Porou) 	Gary Williams MNZM is a member of the Royal Commission’s Survivor Advisory Group of Experts. Gary was placed in care as a 13-year-old and left care in his 40s. He has been influential in driving change for disabled people and Māori for over four decades. He works as a specialist consultant to the disability, government and NGO sectors and is a proud trustee of Ngā Hau e Whā National Marae in Ōtautahi, Life Unlimited Trust and the Earthquake Disability Leadership Group Trust. Gary's particular interests are issues for disabled people and especially disabled Māori, leadership development and training, the rights of disabled people and effective organisational governance and management. Prior to moving to Christchurch, he’d been the CEO of Disabled Persons Assembly (DPA). He has extensive sector networks, both nationally and internationally, and networks within government agencies. He has an extensive array of practical experiences such as being NZ’s non-official in the Government’s negotiating team for the United Nations Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities (UNCRPD), co-ordinating research projects and leading innovations such as NZ Disability Strategy and Enabling Good Lives.

IN-CONFIDENCE

Crown Response to the Abuse in Care Inquiry

Independent Candidate Review Panel – Redress Design & Advisory Groups

Name	Bio
Rahui Papa (Tainui, Ngaati Korokii-Kahukura) 	Rahui Papa is an orator, spokesperson, and recognised authority on Waikato reo and tikanga. He plays an integral role in the Iwi Leaders' Forum, providing advice to Ministers and Crown officials on matters of national significance. Rahui has a background in broadcasting and education and has served on the Waikato-Tainui Governance Group since its inception. He is the negotiator for Waikato-Tainui's outstanding Treaty claims, having previously chaired the Waikato Tainui Executive, Te Arataura, and served as a director and member of various holdings companies, ministerial committees, and national and local boards. Rahui was one of eight members on the Māori Health Authority Steering Group, led by Tā Mason Durie, to select the makeup of the authority. Rahui was put forward by the National Iwi Chairs Forum.
Amanda Hill (Tangata Tiriti) 	Amanda is based in the Wellington region and has been a lawyer since 2005. Amanda has spent most of her career helping people who have had their rights breached in some way or have been hurt by the actions of other people or organisations. During her time as partner at Cooper Legal, Amanda was focused on enabling survivors of abuse to tell their stories to those in power and find a pathway for each survivor to redress. Amanda regularly appeared as counsel in the Royal Commission of Inquiry into Abuse in Care, as well as provided fact and expert witness to the Royal Commission. Amanda has worked on historic abuse claims against the Ministry of Social Development, the Ministry of Education and various Churches, as well as entities contracted by the government to care for children. Since starting her own practice in September 2022, Amanda has focused on the rights and wellbeing of prisoners and other vulnerable members of the community. Amanda has broad experience across the law, ranging from privacy and medico-legal issues, negligence claims to Bill of Rights actions for prisoners, and has appeared in a range of courts and tribunals.

□